About us: Our Foundation

Here at the Community Foundation we believe in facilitating Saskatchewan values, supporting local charities and developing our community so that our home is a more vital, strong, and fair place to live, work and play.

Founded in 1969, South Saskatchewan Community Foundation invests for the long-term with legacy (endowment) Funds that focus on long-term impact in our community. In addition to distributing grants to worthy causes throughout the year, we pool many visionary Saskatchewan citizens and organizations' donations – investing them together for a higher return. This allows donors to see their donations grant out to charities not just once, but year after year. It provides sustainable funding to the charitable sector for generations to come.

Our Success Stories

The Community Foundation is committed to creating a significant and lasting impact within our community. In our pursuit of positive change, we invite you to stay connected with us, to share your stories, and to inspire others to join this incredible journey. Together, we will remain the heartbeat of change in our community, fostering a sense of belonging, support, and unity that defines Saskatchewan's spirit. Together, we can make a difference that will resonate for generations to come.

“The fund has grown greatly, granted millions of dollars, and the future looks bright.”

Susan Yuzik, Fund Advisor of the G. Murray and Edna Forbes Foundation Fund

“I would certainly recommend the Southern Saskatchewan Community Foundation to work with on giving back to the communities that they live in, the legacies that we want to leave behind and how we can impact our communities long into the future.”

Jeremy Fourhorns, Board Chair at All Nations' Healing Hospital

“It gives satisfaction to know you can make a prompt difference in somebody's life.”

Lynn Tomkins, Foundation Fundholder at the South Sask Community Foundation

“Through my time with the Foundation I realized that they did a really good job of assessing the merits of all the organizations that they're donating to. That gave me the confidence that I could do this and it would be handled well.”

Bob Perry, Legacy Fundholder at the South Sask Community Foundation

Code of Ethics

We hold ourselves to the highest ethical standards, ensuring integrity, fairness, and respect in all our interactions. Our Code of Ethics guides how we conduct business, interact with stakeholders, and make decisions.

Download File

 Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

I. Introduction
Benton Properties, Inc. (together with its subsidiaries, the "Company") seeks at all times to conduct its business in accordance with the highest standards of honest and ethical conduct and in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations.

This Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the "Code") governs the business decisions made and actions taken by the Company's directors, officers and employees in the administration of the Company's fundamental and core values, which include (i) respect for the Company and its employees; (ii) respect for customers, suppliers, co-workers, competitors, shareholders and the community; (iii) respect for individuality and personal experience and background; and (iv) support of the communities where the Company and its employees work.

These core values and the other standards of conduct in this Code provide general guidance for resolving a variety of legal and ethical issues that may arise in the course of doing business. This Code does not purport to cover every situation or describe certain foreseeable circumstances and to state the employee's, officer's and director's obligations in such event, it is impossible to anticipate all possibilities. Therefore, in addition to compliance with the Code and applicable laws, rules and regulations, employees, officers and directors of the Company (including its subsidiaries), unless the context requires otherwise, shall observe the highest standards of business ethics and responsibilities.

The integrity, reputation and profitability of the Company ultimately depend upon the individual actions of the Company's employees, officers and directors. As a result, each such individual is personally responsible and accountable to the Company for compliance with this Code. All references in the Code to "employees" should be understood to include all employees, officers and directors of the Company (including its subsidiaries), unless the context requires otherwise.

This Code is in addition to any other Company policies and/or agreements and is not intended to reduce or limit other obligations that employees may have to the Company.

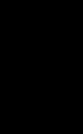

II. Compliance Procedures
A. Administration of the Code
The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the "Governance Committee") is the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board"), or such committee or person(s) responsible for administering the Code as the Board shall designate, shall be responsible for the administration of the Code. The Governance Committee or the Board shall establish such procedures as it shall deem necessary or desirable in order to discharge this responsibility, including delegating authority to any committee or person(s) as it deems appropriate. The Governance Committee shall periodically review the Code and proposing any changes to the Code that are deemed necessary or appropriate.

B. Communication of the Code
A copy of the Code shall be supplied to all employees, officers and directors upon beginning service at the Company and updates will be provided upon any change to the Code. A copy of the Code shall also be available to all employees, officers and directors by requesting one from the Human Resources or Legal Department, or by accessing the Company's Human Resources or Legal Department Portal.

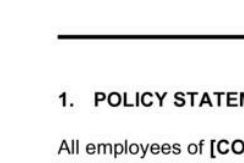

C. Monitoring Compliance and Disciplinary Action
The Company's management, under the supervision of the Governance Committee, or the Board, or, in the case of absence of the Governance Committee, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, shall take reasonable steps to (i) monitor and audit compliance with the Code, including the establishment of monitoring and auditing

Conflict of Interest Policy

Our Conflict of Interest Policy ensures that decisions are made in the best interest of our organization, and any potential conflicts are disclosed and addressed.

 CONFLICTS OF INTEREST POLICY

1. POLICY STATEMENT
All employees of [COMPANY NAME] are required to perform the duties and activities of their position with the highest level of integrity and independence, in a professional and ethical manner. They must also ensure that they avoid or mitigate any situation that could lead to one. Employees may also inadvertently find themselves in a situation that leads to or could be perceived as a conflict of interest. These situations must also be disclosed.

Although this policy details certain behaviours that may lead to a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest, it is impossible to anticipate all situations that could lead to one. Employees may also inadvertently find themselves in a situation that leads to or could be perceived as a conflict of interest. These situations must also be disclosed.

Compliance with this policy is a condition of employment. Failure to comply with these provisions may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

2. SCOPE
This policy applies to all employees of [COMPANY NAME], as well as contractual third parties or partners doing business with the company. All are expected to abide by the provisions of this policy that are reasonably applicable to them.

3. ACTION OR BEHAVIOURS TO AVOID
Below, you will find some situations, behaviours or events that should be avoided at all costs by employees, managers or other contractual third parties doing business with the company.

3.1 PERSONAL INTEREST
Employees must ensure that no conflict exists or could appear to exist between their personal interests and those of [COMPANY NAME], potential competitor, customer, partner, vendor, supplier or other business entity in which you have a direct or indirect financial interest.

- Take part in or attempt to influence any [COMPANY NAME] decision or any business dealings with a current or potential competitor, customer, partner, vendor, supplier or other business entity in which you have a direct or indirect financial interest.
- Use the premises, equipment, supplies or services of other employees of [COMPANY NAME] to promote their personal interests.
- Use confidential information for their personal benefit during or after employment with [COMPANY NAME].
- To be in a position where they could benefit directly or indirectly from a [COMPANY NAME] business transaction (e.g. supplier of goods or services, contract, license or partnership).

Financial Policies

We are dedicated to responsible financial stewardship. Our policies outline how funds are raised, managed, and allocated to support our programs and services.

Download File

 FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT POLICY

1. PURPOSE
The purpose of the Financial Management Policy is to establish clear guidelines and procedures for managing [COMPANY NAME]'s financial resources. This Policy aims to ensure prudent financial practices, transparency, accountability, and compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

2. SCOPE
The policy applies to all employees, contractors, and individuals involved in financial management and decision-making within [COMPANY NAME]. It encompasses all aspects of financial management, including budgeting, financial reporting, internal controls, and financial decision-making.

3. POLICY STATEMENTS
Budgeting and Financial Planning

- Annual Budget: [COMPANY NAME] will prepare an annual budget that outlines projected revenue, expenses, and capital expenditures. The budget will align with the company's strategic goals and priorities.
- Budget Approval: The budget will require approval by APPROVING BODY, e.g. Board of Directors or Executive Management before implementation. Any significant budget revisions will also require approval.
- Budget Monitoring: Regular monitoring and reporting against the budget will be conducted to ensure financial performance aligns with projections. Variances will be analyzed, and corrective action will be taken when necessary.

Financial Reporting and Transparency

- Accurate Reporting: [COMPANY NAME] is committed to providing accurate and timely financial reporting. Financial statements will be prepared in accordance with applicable accounting regulation and as deemed necessary for transparency.
- Transparency: Financial reports will be made available to stakeholders as required by law or regulation and as deemed necessary for transparency.
- Confidentiality: Confidential financial information will be protected, and access will be restricted to authorized personnel as required.
